

RM Weekly Testimonies

From Kathrin, Australia

Dear RM,

I just wanted to share my testimony from the week.

I had three visitors from Cedarvale Health Retreat as my place was close to their massage course.

They were very nice people, one sister, Rachel, who was 17, one brother, Troy, who was 24 (I think) and another lady, Penny, around 50.

I wasn't expecting on talking about doctrinal things straight away. The day after they came, we started talking about conspiracy theories and jesuits and so on. They spoiled me with a massage and suddenly during the massage the brother asked me the question: so do you believe in three gods?

I was a bit speechless and said that I don't believe in three gods. He continued asking me questions and he started talking about what Ellen White says and eventually he talked about how the Holy Spirit is not a separate god. And then I continued that there is no where in the Scripture where it says God the Holy Spirit.

Penny listened and started asking questions.

Troy said that his father studied this out first and then he studied about the topic and talked about Church history. He also said he has been sharing in the health retreat, but they are all trinitarians and not really listening.

We didn't continue for too long as we had to go to sleep, but he got some booklets printed by RM and he is very happy with them. He said those books were fantastic.

I pray we can all keep them in our prayers and that people in Cedarvale will open up their eyes and hearts.

Thank you, and God bless you all.

From Stefan, South Korea

China has a population of about 1.5 billion souls and a gigantic land mass. India has a population of about 1.3 billion souls with also a vast land mass. South Korea has only 50 million souls but a very small land mass. Korea is one of the most densely populated countries on the earth so there are many high rise apartments for people to live. (See pictures)

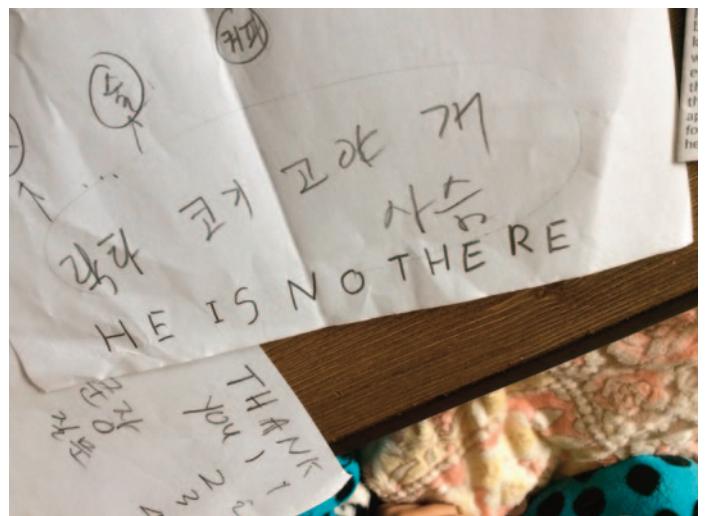

Last Sunday went to Oak Chun apartment complex 303 and decided to go door to door and not miss any house knocking at all doors. Some people were not home so just left a tract. One door opened and a 10 year old boy came, we talked for a minute then his grandmother came and without even asking who or why i was there she said come in, come in. She said can you teach my grandson how to read and speak English. So i gave him a 15 minute little lesson in the alphabet and how to write the letters. I have a little tract about the resurrection of Christ " He is not here He is risen"

See picture. Asked the boy to write the letters he wrote it as " He is no there, it almost sounds like PNG English.

The grandma is Buddhist but she let me pray for them.

Last millineum I was in Beijing and met an old SDA missionary and he told me the greatest formula for missionary work.

Christ's method alone will give true success in reaching the people. The Saviour mingled with men as one who desired their good. He showed His sympathy for them, ministered to their needs, and won their confidence. Then He bade them, "Follow Me." {MH 143.3}

The need of the little Korean Buddhist grandma was for her grandson to read English.

A few days later was in a small Korean farmer bank where we are required to wear a mask. Noticed a black brother so took the initiative and befriended him we talked a while and gave him a tract with my email. After meeting within a few hours he wrote this letter. "Hi Stefan, It was great meeting you today. Looking forward to seeing you again so to share the Gospel.

God richly bless you, Nicholas Tibu"

Ex 2:22 "And she bare [him] a son, and he called his name Gershom: for he said, I have been a stranger in a strange land."

Nicholas is a stranger in a strange land, he needs someone to befriend him.

The same day met another sister from the Phillipines named Angela she was standing in the road with a bewildered look on her face turns out that she was trying to drive her car around a corner with a tight squeeze a car on one side and a truck on the other, so i helped her and she was thankful. We talked about God and heaven and asked her what one of her favorite promises is in the Bible. Without hesitation she said PS 91. Asked her why she liked that chapter she said many years ago she was very sick and that chapter gave her strength.

So back to Christ's method the 5 steps. 1 mingle, 2 show sympathy, 3 minister to their needs, 4 win their confidence, 5 Then bid them, "Follow Me". Each one of us are in different countries and mingle with people who are in different situations and all have different needs.

"God calls upon every man to co-operate with the great Medical Missionary Worker, and to go forth into the highways and byways. Each man, in his particular line of service, has a work to do for God.,Letter 186, 1903.

Please pray for Angela from the Phillipines and Nicholas Tibu from Ghana and the 10 year old Korean boy and his grandma.

From Pr. Naik, India

Dear saints of God.

The Bible says go to preach the Gospel to the ends of the world, the three Angels message should go to allow the latter rain to prepare Gods Church for his second coming.

We had a wonderful opportunity to share this message with others from different groups of the Hindu, Muslim and other communities who heard this wonderful message.

I hope one day they will be preparing their hearts for the second coming of Jesus Christ and give Glory and honour forever and ever to the only begotten Son of God who is going to come on the clouds to take His holy saints from this earth to stay with him forever and ever.

This message has reached these people's door step of their homes. I hope definitely some of the people are taking the decision to follow the only one true God to worship him.

Dear brothers and sisters from RM it is amazing that we are reaching the different groups of the people with the everlasting Gospel. Thank you so much for your prayers and support, I always appreciate it and thank you for your contribution to Indian mission work. Hundreds of people are hearing the gospel and understanding who is only one true God. It is amazing that when people come to know the one true God and ask you how to worship him I am so happy to share with them the truth so that they can come back to God and recognise their creator and worship him.

Thank you so much.

Brother Naik
